3. ☐ Foreign Release of Intelligence. Committee members were provided a report by a Committee working Group on security considerations bearing on release of sensitive intelligence to foreign governments and officials for future discussion. The report noted differences between procedures for releasing compartmented and non-compartmented intelligence, and problems in readily identifying the full extent of compartmented release.

25X1

4. ☐ Revision of E.O. 11652. The Committee staff commented on several elements of the final draft of the proposed revision of Executive Order 11652 setting national policy on security classification.
